THE NEWS.

Henry Ward Beecher was arrested at St. Joseph, Mo., on the 9th inst., for stealing furniture. Too bad, isn't it?

Lieut. Commander Charles S. Morton, who entered the army from Buffalo, is now in command of the receiving ship Vermont, at Brooklyn.

Mr. Greeley joins with those Union League gentlemen whom he also termed narrow-minded blockheads in testimonializing John Jay.

Meadler, who is meddling persistently with affairs in the moon, has discovered 22 mountains on the lunar surface, each higher than Mount Blanc.

The Viceroy of Egypt, having established an opera house and a gambling house, is now meditating a viceregal brewery for the further gratification of his royally vicious appetite.

A lesteal merchant in New York, who, by superhuman detective vigilance, was caught milking a hydrant the other morning, received a fifty dollar fine from the liquor stricken justice.

Near Clinton, Iowa, a farmer passing over his meadows, discovered a large hole in the ground of singular appearance. A local journal says: "Large pieces of turf, weighing half a ton, were evidently lifted up by the force of some explosion and carried twenty feet away. The hole was eight feet long by five or six wide. The pieces of earth thrown out were six feet long by two wide, and eight or ten inches thick. The earth seemed forced up from some depth, so as to nearly fill the hole. There were evidently a sudden explosion of pent-up gas that came to the surface when the ground was frozen, which lifted the masses of earth with as much force as a large amount of gunpowder. Some scientific gentlemen have visited the place, and express the opinion that a mineral deposit of some value is deposited there or a vein of petroleum.
